

NIKER Workshop – 16, 17 of December 2012,

Tel-Aviv and Acre, Israel

16.12.2012 Mikve Israel, Holon

9:00 Opening session and Greetings:

Dr. Avi Shapira – Director of the National Earthquake Preparedness
Committee of Israel

9:30 Francesca da Porto – Results of the NIKER Project – Summary

10:00 Elisabeth Vintzileou – Analytical and Laboratory Models and connections between walls

10:30 - 10:45 – Coffee break

10:45 Claudio Modena – Design criteria of repairing and strengthening interventions

11:30 Pere Rocca- Overview of the Case Studies

12:00 Lunch break

13:00 Francesca da Porto – The NIKER Catalogue

13:45 Claudio Modena – Guidelines for end users including building codes and standards

14:15 – 14:30 Coffee break

14:30 Milos Drdacky – Testing and investigation techniques

15:00 Paulo Lourenco – Structural modeling of historical constructions

15:30 Round table

17:00 Closure of the 1st day

19:00 Tel-Aviv - Dinner with Shuka Dorfman Director of the Israel Antiquities
Authority

ועדת התיאום הלאומית להיערכות לרעידות אדמה
National Steering Committee for Earthquake
Preparedness

המועצה לשימור
אתרי מורשת
בישראל

17.12.2012 International Conservation Center "Citta di Roma", Acre

9:30 Opening session and Greetings

10:00 Paulo Lourenço – Case study, Portugal

10:15 Yaacov Schaffer – Cases studies in the frame of NIKER Project: Conservation
Center – Acre

10:30 Elisabeth Vintzileou – Case study Greece

10:45 Pere Roca – Case study, Spain

11:00 Greeting:

The Ambassador of Italy, H.E. Francesco Maria Talo'

The Consul of the Greek Embassy, Mr. C. Alexandris

11:15 – 11:30 Coffee break

11:30 Claudio Modena - Conclusions

11:45 Nida Naycı - Integration of Threat and Risk Assessments into Archaeological Site Management Researches: Two Case-Studies from Sedir Island and Kanlıdivane Archaeological Sites in Turkey

12:15 Michael Cohen – Exploitation of the results of NIKER Project: The Risk
Preparedness Map of Israel

12:35 Jacques Neguer – Dissemination and exploitation of the results of the NIKER
Project

12:30 Round table and discussion